

priyanka
24 April 2025

Assessment

Influence Quotient: 67/100

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- You delivered the content with a clear and concise structure, making it easy to follow your train of thought
- You provided relevant examples to support your points, such as the Inspire for Leaders program, to illustrate customer-focused urgency
- You demonstrated a good understanding of marketing concepts, including the difference between timeline-based urgency and customer-focused urgency
- You showed enthusiasm and interest in the topic of copywriting and marketing, which is evident in your effort to learn and implement new strategies

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- You could improve by providing more concrete data or statistics to support your claims, such as the effectiveness of customer-focused urgency in marketing
- You sometimes used vague phrases, such as 'very long time', which could be more specific to add credibility to your points
- You repeated certain phrases, such as 'what do I mean by that', which could be rephrased for better clarity and flow
- You could benefit from using more technical terms or jargon related to marketing, such as 'scarcity principle' or 'urgency tactics', to demonstrate your expertise
- You may want to consider providing more specific examples or case studies to illustrate the application of customer-focused urgency in different contexts

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Individual Parameters	5 Point scale:	Feedback: Excellent(5), Good(4) Satisfactory(3), Needs Improvement(2), Poor(1)
1.	Level of Confidence through the presentation • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energy levels through the presentation	3	Posture: 4 Smile: 3 Eye Contact: 4 Energy levels through the presentation: N/A
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, and volume while delivering the speech/presentation?	4	You maintained a good tone. Your volume was consistent. A few words were pronounced very fast.
3.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	4	The speech started with an introduction. The body of the speech was detailed. The structure was mostly clear.
4.	Was the overall "Objective" of the speech delivered clearly?	3	The objective of the speech was somewhat clear. You provided some context. The main point was eventually stated.
5.	Was the content of the presentation/speech to the point, or did it include unnecessary details that may have distracted or confused the audience?	3	The content was mostly relevant. Some details were unnecessary. The audience may have been distracted.
6.	Was the content of the presentation/speech relevant to the objective of the presentation?	4	The content was related to marketing. The topic was narrow. The speech stayed on topic. The objective was somewhat clear.
7.	Was the content of the presentation/speech clear and easy to understand?	3	The content was somewhat clear. Some parts were confusing. The language was straightforward.
8.	Did the speaker keep the presentation engaging by adding relevant examples, anecdotes and data to back their content?	4	You provided some examples. The speech was mostly engaging. More anecdotes would be helpful.
9.	Did the speaker demonstrate credibility? Will you trust the speaker?	3	You demonstrated some credibility. Your experience was evident. More conviction was needed.
10.	Did the speaker explain how the speech or topic of the presentation would benefit the audience and what they could gain from it?	3	You explained some benefits. The audience could gain some insights. More details were needed.

11.	Did the speaker make an emotional connection with the audience?	3	You made some emotional connection. The audience may have been interested. More passion was needed.
12.	Overall, were you convinced/ persuaded with the speaker's view on the topic?	3	You were somewhat persuasive. The speech was mostly convincing. More evidence was needed.