

SoME

28 April 2025

Assessment

Influence Quotient: 78/100

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- You delivered the content with a clear structure, starting with a greeting and introducing the occasion, which shows your ability to organize your thoughts.
- You effectively conveyed your message by sharing personal anecdotes and lessons learned from your experience in the Indian Army, making the content more relatable and engaging.
- You showed appreciation for the occasion and expressed gratitude towards the Principal and faculty for inviting you, which demonstrates your ability to acknowledge and respect others.
- You encouraged the students to participate in sports, learn new things, and consider a career in the armed forces, which shows your enthusiasm for inspiring and motivating others.

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- You repeated the phrase 'Jai Hind' multiple times at the end, which could be seen as unnecessary and may have been more effective with a single statement.
- You assumed that the students would 'always strive hard to contribute to the well-being and development of America', which may not be accurate as the students may have different goals and aspirations.
- You mentioned that 'the bond you build at school, especially on the playground, will always help you in later years', which may not be true for all individuals and could be seen as an oversimplification.
- You used a quote from John F. Kennedy, which is relevant, but you could have also provided more context or explanation about why this quote is important to you and the occasion.
- You could have provided more specific examples or stories to illustrate the lessons you learned in the Indian Army, which would have made the content more engaging and memorable.

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Individual Parameters	5 Point scale:	Feedback: Excellent(5), Good(4) Satisfactory(3), Needs Improvement(2), Poor(1)
1.	Level of Confidence through the presentation • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energy levels through the presentation	4	Posture: 4 Smile: 3 Eye Contact: 4 Energy levels through the presentation: N/A
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume?	3	You maintained a good tone. Your volume was appropriate. You could have maintained a steady speed in delivery. A few words were pronounced very fast.
3.	Who are you and what are your skills, expertise, personality traits?	5	You are a veteran of the armed forces with 33 years of experience. You have skills in leadership and teamwork. You have expertise in motivating others. You have a strong personality with a sense of patriotism.
4.	Why are you the best person to fit this role?	4	You are the best person to fit this role because you have a strong sense of duty. You performed well in inspiring others to put their nation first. You did well in sharing your personal experiences. You could have done better in providing more specific examples.
5.	How are you different from others?	5	You are different from others because you have a unique perspective. You have a strong sense of loyalty. You have a willingness to serve your country.
6.	What value do you bring to the role?	4	You bring value to the role by sharing your experiences. You have a strong sense of responsibility. You have a passion for inspiring others.
7.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	3	Your speech had a clear structure of opening, body, and conclusion.
8.	How was the quality of research for the topic? Did the student's speech demonstrate a good depth? Did they cite the sources of research properly?	3	You did well in researching the topic. You demonstrated a good depth of knowledge. You could have cited more sources to support your arguments.

9.	How creatively did the student present the video?	3	You presented the video in a straightforward manner. You could have used more creative visuals. You did well in using quotes to support your points.
10.	How convinced were you with the overall speech on the topic? Was it persuasive? Will you give them the job/opportunity?	5	You were persuasive in your speech. You convinced me that you are passionate about your country. You will be considered for the job because you have a strong sense of duty.