

Some test 29 April 2025

Assessment

Influence Quotient: 88/100

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- You delivered the content with a clear and concise structure, making it easy to follow
- You showed passion and empathy towards the cause of helping seniors, which is evident in your mission
- You effectively highlighted the problem and presented a solution through the Smiling Souls platform
- You demonstrated a strong understanding of the market and the potential for growth and scalability

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- You could improve by providing more specific statistics and data to support your claims, such as the exact number of seniors who have benefited from the platform
- You mentioned that COVID changed your perspective, but it would be more effective to elaborate on how this experience shaped your mission and goals
- You could enhance your content by including more details about the services and features of the Smiling Souls platform, such as how the virtual and in-person events are organized
- You stated that the Indian senior market is massive, but it would be more convincing to provide a clear plan for how you intend to capture a significant share of this market
- You should avoid using phrases such as 'unreported much more' when discussing sensitive topics like depression, as it comes across as insensitive and vague

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Individual Parameters	5 Point scale:	Feedback: Excellent(5), Good(4) Satisfactory(3), Needs Improvement(2), Poor(1)
1.	Level of Confidence through the presentation • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energy levels through the presentation	4	Posture: Poor Smile: Poor Eye Contact: Poor Energy levels through the presentation: Poor
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume?	3	Your tone was appropriate. You maintained a good volume. You could have maintained a steady speed in delivery. A few words were pronounced very fast.
3.	Did they use any gestures with their hands or body while speaking?	4	You used minimal gestures with your hands. You maintained a still body. Your gestures were not distracting.
4.	Did they have expressions on their face?	4	You had expressive facial gestures. You maintained a neutral face. Your expressions were natural.
5.	Who are you and what are your skills, expertise, personality traits?	5	You are a business and technology expert. You have a strong foundation in community building. You have a compassionate personality.
6.	Why are you the best person to fit this role?	5	You are the best person to fit this role because you have a strong foundation in business and technology. You have a passion for helping seniors. You have a clear mission to create a scalable human-centered tech solution.
7.	How are you different from others?	5	You are different from others because you have a unique blend of business and technology skills. You have a strong understanding of the senior market. You have a deep connection with the mission and the audience.

8.	What value do you bring to the role?	5	You bring a unique value to the role because you have a deep understanding of the senior market. You have a strong foundation in community building. You have a compassionate personality.
9.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	4	Your speech had a clear structure with an opening and a conclusion.
10.	How was the quality of research for the topic? Did the student's speech demonstrate a good depth? Did they cite the sources of research properly?	4	You demonstrated a good depth of knowledge about the senior market. You provided some statistics about the senior market. You did not cite any specific sources for your research.
11.	How creatively did the student present the video?	5	You presented the video in a clear and concise manner. You used a conversational tone. You made a strong emotional connection with the audience.
12.	How convinced were you with the overall speech on the topic? Was it persuasive? Will you give them the job/opportunity?	5	You were persuasive in your speech. You presented a compelling argument for investing in the Smiling Souls. You convinced me that you are passionate about the mission.